

Edward Carson Hudson

February 25, 1928 - March 2, 2025

Edward Carson Hudson of Lumberton passed away on Sunday March 2nd. He had just celebrated his 97th birthday surrounded by family and friends. He was born February 25, 1928 in Livermore, Ky. Ed was a hard-working family man that loved conversation, painting, drawing and tinkering with various projects.

Ed made his mark as a standout high school basketball player. He then worked in the oil fields of Kentucky with his father before he became an iron worker with American Bridge. He leaves the legacy of building hospitals, schools, roller coasters, skyscrapers and bridges up and down the east coast.

He was predeceased by his wife of 52 years, Wilma Hudson. They have four daughters - Sue Marmino (Paul dec.), Bonnie Sereduk (John), Cindy DiPasquale (Tommy dec.) and Mandy Hudson (Greg). Grandchildren- Jared Snapp (Trista), Paul Marmino (Jennifer), Marc Marmino (Beth), Michael Katz (Shauna), Ben Sereduk (Paula), Wesley Hoffner and Jenna Hoffner. Great grandchildren- Carson, Greyson, William, Eleanor, Logan, Joey, Ellie, Olivia, Roman, Miles and Austin.

Family, friends and others whose lives Ed touched are invited to Perinchief Chapels, 438 High Street, Mt. Holly, NJ 08060 from 1:00-3:00pm on Sunday March 9th with a Celebration of Life from 3:00-4:00pm.
