Sandra I am so deeply sorry for you. I loved your mother so deeply. I know your heart it's breaking please understand I did not come to see you ninth because I wasn't sure if you want to see me. I want to make things worse for you please understand I love you and I'm very concerned for you and Leo. I have no car but my heart is with you and please know that my doors always open to you and your husband. Bryan and I love you both very deeply and wish I was something we could do for you but I know that nothing can help your heart to heal but time sweetheart. If you can find it in your heart call me please.
