

Eleanor "Penny" Meiss-Schoem

March 27, 1919 - February 26, 2009

Mrs. Eleanor (Penny) Meiss-Schoem passed away peacefully in her sleep on February 25th. She was 89 years old, the eldest surviving member of her family. Penny lived a full and beautiful life, striving for excellence in all matters; we are proud of her.

Penny is survived by her son Richard (Lin) and grandsons Alan (Carolyn) and Mark (Heather), her son Martin (Adriana) and grandchildren Monika and Benedikt, her daughter Harriette (Patrick), her niece Alison, and her grandnieces Angela (Bruce) and Stephanie, and their children Darcy and Saige, Gavin and Molly. She will be remembered fondly.

Penny received a teaching degree from Juniata College (Huntingdon, PA), but after her children arrived she gave up professional teaching and devoted herself to her family and her church. Penny loved flowers, gardening, and landscaping, and she enjoyed crafts based on objects from nature.

Penny was married to Philip Meiss and raised her children with him in Springfield Township until his death in 1974. Later in life love came to her again, and she married George Schoem in 1995 and lived with him in Mt. Holly until his death in 2005.

Penny was a member of St. Paul's Lutheran Church in Hainesport for nearly 60 years, where she worshiped regularly, served on church committees, and taught confirmation classes. She will be lovingly remembered by church members and by her devoted caregivers at the Lutheran Home in Moorestown..
