“ When I attended First UMC, Eleanor was like my "local" mom. I even took her to the Mother/Daughter banquet a few times. She was such a good role model for living a Christian life. Her wisdom knew no bounds. I love her and will miss her.##imported-begin##Carolyn Hohne##imported-end##

“ Eleanor and I were roommates for several years as delegates from our respective churches to the New Jersey United Methodist Annual Conference. We developed a close bond and stayed in touch down through the years. We enjoyed each other's company and I will always remember those shared "mini-vacation" with her. May God bless you, her family, as you mourn her passing but remember happy family times together.##imported-begin##Peggy Simkins##imported-end##
