“ Beth and I worked together for ten summers at BCC; we advised together. She was always full of joy and energy. In her last year of advising, we opened up about our shared faith. And it was a beautiful thing when Beth sometimes visited our parish in Hainesport. I remember introducing my family to her. She was always a walking smile, a ray of light, and will be sorely missed.

“ I have so many fond memories of Beth at Trident Swim club. She also tutored me in Chemestry. She taught me more Chemestry in one session than my HighSchool did in an entire year. My deepest condolences to you and the Family. My Thoughts and prayers are with all of you.

“ My memories of Beth go back many years. We met through the BCSCA and discovered many things in common. We're both from Philadelphia, went to Philadelphia Catholic High Schools and Catholic Colleges. We made a fast and a close connection. We made 3 trips to Europe together through Arcadia University. These were unforgettable times that gave me insight into the beauty of Beth, both inside and out. She was fun loving, personable and someone hard to forget. Through Beth, I met Rich, her mom, Bridget and her dear friend, Mary. Mary, Beth and I made the trip to Greece together. I have a lovely picture of the three of us to remember our time together. It is with much sadness that I remember Beth at this time. The loss is so soon and unexpected! I know, in time, however, that her absence will turn into a presence of her spirit in my mind and heart as I recall things we did, conversations we had and experiences we shared. Beth, your love lives on in all whom you have touched and I am grateful that I am one of those people.

I know how much you loved, Rich, your boys, their wives and your grandchildren. You were a faithful friend to so many people and a light in the midst of all of us. I know you are with God and where God is, all is well! May you be with us too until we meet again. I love and miss you, dear friend. Joan DeGregorio
