Elizabeth Loretta Smalley from Mt. Holly passed away Friday, July 26, 2019 surrounded by her loving family as she went into God's loving and eternal care. She was 83 years old.

She was preceded in death by her father Phillip, mother Irene Doucette, and her daughter Judi Lynn Oliver, who she lost only a year ago.

She was born February 25, 1936 and raised in Plattsburgh, NY.

She was employed at Champlain Valley Hospital, OLVA Nursing Home, and the dining hall on Plattsburgh Air Force Base. She worked as a telephone operator for Bell Telephone in Mt. Kisco, NY. Her family relocated after her husband returned from Viet Nam and was stationed at Lackland Air Force Base in San Antonio, Texas. She worked for AAFES. They were also stationed at Whiteman Air Force Base in Missouri and Zweiberken Air Force Base in Germany where she also worked for AAFES. After returning to San Antonia, she owned and managed Buzzin' Bee Daycare Center. All of the children in her care loved and called her Grandma. After her husband retired from the Air Force they moved to New Jersey so her family could be together, as her son-in-law was stationed at McGuire Air Force Base. Elizabeth worked for the Ft Dix/McGuire Commissary and retired in 1995.

Elizabeth was a loving and devoted wife, mother, grandmother, and great-grandmother. She is survived by her loving husband of 50 years, Douglas; three daughters: Patricia A Pudlo & her husband Ronald of Browns Mills, Judi L. Oliver of Austin Texas and her companion James F.
