“ George,

I was so sad when I heard of your tragic loss. When I shared the news with my daughters (both former students at DRHS) their first reaction was “Oh NO! He was so in love with his wife. He would always talk about her and had her picture all over his office. How sad!” I share this with you in the hope that you can find some comfort in knowing that your love for her was evident even to the teenagers who you worked with and that you find peace in knowing that you were a loving husband who brought many happy years to Elsa’s life.

Our thoughts and prayers are with you and your children at this time.

“ My dear friend – I’m devastated for you and your family’s loss. Elsa was a shining star in all of our lives – blessing everyone with her radiance.

Please know that we love you and you and your family are in our thoughts and prayers. Since my mere words will only fail to recognize the depth of your sorrow, I’ll stop here and leave you with a poem that was a favorite of a man you admire greatly.

Young man.
Seize every minute
Of your time.
The days fly by;
Ere long you too
Will grow old.

If you believe me not
See here, in the courtyard
How the frost
Glitters white and cold and cruel
On the grass
That once was green.

Do you not see
That you and I
Are as the branches
Of one tree.
With your rejoicing
Comes my laughter;
With your sadness
Start my tears.

Love,
Could life be otherwise
With you and me?##imported-begin##Matt, Liz, Evie, & Matthew

“ Dear George and Family,

I am so sorry and devastated by your loss. Words cannot express my deepest sorrow for the loss of our beloved Elsa. I immediately thought of her beautiful smile and wonderful personality. I thought of how beautifully you and Elsa danced together and what best friends you were. There couldn't be a deeper love than the Fullerton family. George, all of us in PUSD and your old PHS family are broken hearted over this tragedy and knowing how you and the kids are suffering right now. Please know how much we love you.

“ We would like to express our deepest sympathy for the loss of your dear Elsa. May your fond memories, as well as Jesus' words at John 11:25 comfort you, "I am the resurrection and the life. He that exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life." May God's peace strengthen you at this difficult time.##imported-begin##Jackson family##imported-end##

“ To The Fullertons and Family - On the blessedly few occasions when I've have had to write to convey my condolences, I was always at a loss for words. When my father, the smartest man I ever knew, passed away, I felt like I wanted to tell everyone I knew about it and to proclaim my loss to the world. I would much rather express my condolences in person, but I do want you to know that I am here for you when you get back. Layla and I offer you our love, our hearts, and our prayers to you and your family during this difficult time.##imported-begin##Will and Layla Fritz##imported-end##
