“ I grew up taking care of Paul and Hilda's yard during my time as a youth. My name is Mark and my grandparents were the Alcott's. Mr. Elwood and MS. Florence were both very kind people. My sincere sympathy goes out to his family. May he rest in peace now that he and his wife are reunited in heaven.

“ I enjoyed spending time with Uncle Elwood. He was always in a great mood. We spent afternoons talking sports as I was growing up and talking about the Air Force and his job at Aero. He will be missed. As a celebration of his life, a donation was made to Samaritan Hospice.
