“ To The Family of Mrs. Esther J. Haines

With sincere sympathy in the loss of your dear one, there is very little one can do or say to help you bear the sorrow. But God is able to speak consolingly to those who are “broken hearted” Psalms 34:18. By means of God’s Word you will feel his love enfold you while his promises for the dead will comfort you Revelations 21:3-4, “and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” Please read the Scriptures daily to truly benefit from God’s promises.

*Sincerely
Gladys Dickson*

“ I think of Mort and Esther often. I tried to visit anytime I was in NJ. The last time Esther told me that Mort had to tell her who I was before I got there. I have several cherished memories, so I will only share a couple. The first was how welcome she made me feel at my first job out of high school back in 1967. She was my first boss who later became a life long friend. I also remember how happy they both were when I surprised them at their 50th wedding anniversary celebration. I am sorry I wasn't there for Mort's services and am extremely disappointed that I will be unable to say good bye to Esther in person. My sincere sympathies and love go to the family.
