The outdoors were also something Evelyn enjoyed. She enjoyed hiking through the Pine Barrens and spending time at the beach. She enjoyed seeing the lighthouses in NJ, as well as up and down the East Coast with her beloved husband Bob.

Evelyn was preceded in death by her husband Bob, her parents Frederick and Mildred, and her sister Elizabeth Fine (nee Kaehler), brother-in-law Sam Fine, and sister-in-law Nan Kaehler (nee Halscheid). “ The picture here is with 4 of the Kaehler girl cousins. ( Betty, Margie, Norma and Evelyn.) Though we only saw each other a few times throughout our lives, those moments were filled with wonderful memories that I will always cherish. We shared many similarities, and perhaps those common traits were inherited. Evelyn's presence will be deeply missed, but the memories of our time together will remain forever In my heart.

“ Nothing made me look forward to a Saturday night shift at Barnes and Noble more than seeing Evelyn's name next to mine on the schedule. I have the fondest memories of her sneakily changing out the store CD and replacing it with her Tracy Chapman one. She will be so dearly missed ❤️
