“ Dear Family of Mr. Turner,
We became friends with your parents when we use to all walk the Hainesport Park. Your dear parents always walked hand in hand & we always enjoyed chatting with them. We visited them on occasion & always treasured our time & phone conversations together. One couldn't help but love them.
The sweetest couple ever, they are together again forever and we send you all our deepest sympathy.

“ Mr. Turner was there--right there, in downtown Mount Holly--when I needed him. I was the new adviser to The Holly Spirit, the newspaper at RVRHS, and I needed all of the help I could get with photography for the paper. He was a kind, knowledgeable man who sold us our first camera and was always there to help. Rest in peace, sir.
