“ I worked with Faith at Hallmark. It didn't take long before we became friends. Faith was a hard-working, intelligent, caring and a very thoughtful person. One of Faith's best traits was her sense of humor and her ability to make people laugh and smile. I loved the stories she would tell me about the dog & cat running all over the house making a mess and how Raymond would have to fix up the house when he got home. I feel so blessed to have met "Faith". She was truly full of unpredictable fun and laughter. I will miss her with all my heart.

“ Dear Durham family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
