“ I met Florence in 1975, while dating her son Mark. We eventually married, which is why I've known her for more than half of my life! She was THE best mother in law ever, and she'd always have a key to any house I owned, even after Mark & I weren't married. Our families remained very close, & Mark and I were amicable for many years as we had children together. Florence loved her grandkids and had a 'special' connection with her grands. If I'm honest, Dad had a connection or 'link' to Eric & Flo was linked to Mark, which then turned into a link between her grand Matthew and her. The psychological connections were undeniable! I saw them! And the physical links? Both of my boys are spitting images of Wirtz's! Matt and Michael both look like carbon copies of Mark, or Dad, or every other Wirtz! It's crazy! 🤪

She was very versed in homeopathic herbs, loved bird watching (🐦 -wink to you, MIL👉), and being out in nature. I love that we were able to remain close all these years except the last couple. I'd never force you to chose between Mark or me so I stepped back, albeit sadly.

I'll fondly remember our wine nights in the hot hub, our cross country trip, all of the little secrets (👉and there are quite a few!) Rest in peace, say hi to my Dad! 😊 And tell the rest of my family I miss them and love them!👉

Love you, Florence and TTFN 😘😊

“ My mom and Florence were friends since childhood. She was always known as “Aunt” Floss to me. When my mom died four years ago she was always there for me to talk or have a cup of tea. I will miss her terribly. She was such a strong and loving person.

“ I met Flo through my sister Judi. We were Navy wives and lived near each other in Imperial Beach, CA. A nice lady and she could always make me laugh. A real loss.
