

Florentyna A. Jurkiewicz

June 19, 1929 - November 1, 2024

Florentyna Jurkiewicz, 95, of Mt. Holly, passed away peacefully on November 1, 2024. She grew up in Michigan and lived there until she married her husband of 72 years, Leonard. They lived across the U.S. raising their family until they settled in New Jersey.

Flo was known for her fun, kind, and sweet nature including making holidays special including her epic Polish Christmas Eve family celebration. She was always up for an adventure focused on bringing her family together whether it was traveling to visit her kids and grandkids, being a dance partner in her granddaughter's recital, or simply taking a day out to visit the Burlington City riverfront.

Flo was a devout Catholic and a long-time member of the Sacred Heart Parish in Mt. Holly. Pre-deceased by her husband and 9 brothers and sisters, Flo is survived by 5 children and their spouses, 6 grandchildren, and 5 great grandchildren along with several nieces and nephews.

Mass and services will be private. Donations on her behalf may be made to Sacred Heart Church or Masonic Charity Foundation.
