“ Stefni, Jimmy and all,
I was privileged to work with Fran for 30+ years. I can still hear his voice saying "hi sweetie" when I picked up the phone, I hope that sound never fades from my memory. He was a wonderful friend and will be forever missed. I was so lucky to have had him in my life.

“ My Dearest Stefni and Family,

The loss of a husband is like giving up a part of one's self, a feeling that I know all too well... but may the love and memories of Frannie that you hold in your heart help to lessen your sorrow, and may the sympathy of those who care make the sorrow of your heart less difficult to bear. My sympathy and love will always be there for you.....

I wanted to share one of my favorite ways on how i look upon loosing a loved one...

I know for certain that we never lose the people we love, even in death. I believe they continue to be there for us in every act, thought and decision we make. Their love leaves an indelible imprint in our memories. Your Fran has left a very large imprint on everyone's heart and soul that he knew and you will always be able to cherish those memories.. I hope you find comfort in knowing that his life mattered to so many and has enriched others by having shared a part of his life with them.

You and your family are in my thoughts and prayers.

With love always,

Your friend ...
