“ Although, it has been many years since we hung together, I have the best memories of Frank. I can not remember laughing as much or as often as I did when we were together. He truly was one of a kind. Nona, please accept my sincere condolences. Robert Leonard

“ Dear Nona,

I am shocked to learn that you not only lost your nephew, but now your husband. I would like to send my heartfelt sympathy to you on your losses. Please remember there are friends out there who care and share in your great sorrow. Although it has been a great many years since we were classmates, I will remember you in my thoughts and prayers.

“ Frank the tank! What can I say? There's so much to say but not enough space. You were an amazing human and an even more amazing husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle and friend! You were and will continue to be a model citizen always doing what's right and giving your best for your family. You had the most intoxicating smile, laugh and sense of humor. Could light up any room you entered. While you may no longer be present physically in our lives, your memory and legacy will live on. Kaden is going to turn out to be just like his pop and best buddy! I can see it now. Rest easy pal. We'll take good care of your family. Until we meet again!
