“ Aunt Bertha and family,

My son Collin and I would like to extend our sincere condolences to Aunt Bertha, cousins, and relatives since hearing of the passing of Uncle Frank. Life has taken me on a separate path, but as my son gets older I share stories of my growing up with my own son. I have very fond memories of going to Uncle Frank's and Aunt Bertha's with grandpop as a young child. Grandpop would always discuss his garden with Uncle Frank, and Aunt Bertha always had cake and a glass of milk at the ready. The one quality Uncle Frank had was a smile for everyone that could be infectious. When he would enter any room, the room became brighter. He was respected by many and will be missed by many more.

Being in Louisiana, and my son's medical needs doesn't permit is to make the trip to pay our respects in person. I just wanted to take this opportunity to tell Aunt Bertha how sorry I am about Uncle Frank's passing. I feel very fortunate to have had him as an example in my life while growing up. Heaven has a special place reserved for him. I am sure he was created by Grandmom and Grandpop, his brothers and sister, and is with his children as well. Every time I see a bright ray of sun coming through on a spring day, I will think of Uncle Frank smiling down on all of us, not only letting us know he is still there, but letting us know he is still watching.

“ Dear Alcott family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
