“ My heart is broken that this lovely woman was taken so young in her life. She always had a smile and an encouraging word to give to you. She was always there for you in good times and not so good times. Loved her family more then life itself. She worked hard to make things the best that they could be. She was looking forward to slowing down and moving south with her husband. That was the last conversation we had at the grocery store. Gail had this knack of making me forget what I even went to the store for.....She was kind, loving and a good friend. I will miss seeing her in "our" neighborhood. God Bless!!###imported-begin##Bobbi Bergin###imported-end##
