“ We were brothers on the gridiron a bond that will never be forgotten. After high school we went our seperate ways to see what the world had to offer and i see you went off to protect and serve and this is something to be commended. Your daughters have the best of you because they have your heart and your passion for life something that came easy to you. Today as everyone honors and remembers you. I know i will never forget the way you impacted my life. Love you forever bro!!!
