

George Mathew Fedor

April 13, 1930 - March 7, 2021

George Mathew Fedor, of Eastampton, passed away on March 7, 2021 at the Cambridge Rehabilitation Center, he was 90 years old.

Son of the late George and Margaret Fedor, George was born April 13, 1930 in Lorain, OH. George enlisted in the United States Air Force right out of high school, where he proudly served his country for over 20 years. While in the Air Force George became a pilot and participated in Operation Safe Haven, also known as Operation Mercy, a refugee relief operation following the Hungarian Revolution of 1956. George was featured in an article in National Geographic magazine about this mission. In 1956, while attending a dance at Falcons Polish Dancehall in Trenton, NJ George met the love of his life Helen Grygon and after a short engagement were married that same year. Once married, George and Helen moved to various countries while George was still enlisted. After retiring from the US Air Force in 1968, the Fedor family remained in Eastampton where George worked as a Life Insurance Agent with Kansas City Life until his retirement in 1992. George loved to build and fly model airplanes, as well as going fishing and playing golf. He is a member of the American Legion, was a former member of the Mount Holly Rotary and was a longtime parishioner and former Usher of the Sacred Heart Roman Catholic Church in Mount Holly.

George is survived by his loving wife of 65 years Helen (nee Grygon), his children David (Marguerite) Fedor, Thomas (Brenda) Fedor, Mary Raynor, Barbara Fedor, and Paul Fedor, his grandchildren Sarah, John, Brad, Brett, Jay, Stephanie, and Christina, his sisters Mary Ann Grygon, Susan Dzbenski, and Roberta Herron, as well as many nieces and nephews.
