“ For a dear Friend,

George was a close friend you could always count on. During the time when we lived across the street from George, he was there for us any time of the day or night. As my parents had moved in with me in 2005, George was there to help us when Dad fell. It took at least two people to pick up Dad; we knew we could call George any time to give us a helping hand.

Once, Dad fell on top of Mom who was trying to catch him, George stayed with Dad while I took Mom to the hospital.

George was so thoughtful too. One day, while he was still in active service, he stopped by with a bottle of wine and a loaf of bread he had just brought over from France!

We will dearly miss George and give our deepest sympathy to Theresa and Stef.

“ For my beloved Sister-in-Law & Niece,

There aren't words to describe my loss. I can only IMAGINE yours. I'm resting a lot easier knowing that he found Christ before, he passed. Hopefully, this will reinforce my side of the family's belief in the resurrection of Christ. (I personally have never believed it MORE until, now). I can rest. I KNOW I WILL SEE MY BROTHER, AGAIN!!!!

In Christ,

Your Loving Brother-in-Law & Uncle Peter

“ Theresa and Stephanie, Sam and I adored George. Our last contact with him was when he came over to help us move to Florida at 2 in the morning. I guess he was anxious to get rid of us. George was a great guy and we know he will be sadly missed by his family and friends.

“ Dear Mrs. Grand and Stephanie... i was truly saddened to hear of George's passing. I havent been to ur home in awhile, but by being there every two weeks for a couple of years, I came to know and love George. We shared many great conversations and a ton of laughs. He always made me feel welcome, (offering up orange soda and not taking no for an answer..lol) in ur home and appreciated..we would talk about everything from his beloved family to his album collection, to his military service to his commissary trips he would take when we would come. I have nothing but great memories of those times and feel honored to have known him. May he RIP...He and Tiffany are together..laughing and loving u both from above. God bless you and ur family during this difficult time.

“ Let's not forget George...the radio personality/DJ. The 170th/108th might've lost one of its best boomers...if the radio station Nick bought in south Jersey had a broadcast range of more than 4 city blocks.

Theresa, our hearts are with you. If there's an alert facility in Heaven, you can be sure George is still bringing Tiffany to play. Here's to George...

“ *Dear Teri,
I was so saddened to hear that George died. From the time you started dating, I knew you were a great couple. I only wish our paths could have crossed after we left the guard.
From the clinic to the Caribou to the 135, there were so many memories of you both that enriched my life.
My sympathies to you and Stephanie.

“ Dear Grand family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

He was a kind man and I'll miss bantering with him on the Polk Audio forum. He told me some funny stories about his times here in Hawaii.*

Rest in peace, my friend,

“ Teri and Steph, I am so very sorry to hear about George's passing. My heart is broken for you. I only met George a few times and although I didn't get to know him well, I liked him right away. He was so kind. But what I'd say I remember most of all, Teri, are the stores you would tell about George and Stephanie and of you family time together. There is so much love in your family. I am so sorry that I will not be able to be there with you on Saturday, but you know my heart has been and will be with you every single day. George and Tiffany are in God's arms.

“ Theresa and Stephanie, I was heart broken to hear of George's passing. He touched so many lives in the most positive way, many more than you had the chance to meet. He offered so much of his time, probably more than his fair share, to anyone who needed it. We all have so little of something so precious and George gave it away freely. He was a tremendous man, I admired him greatly and proud to call him my friend. I wish there was more time for just one more visit. One more cup of coffee. One more broken piece of gear to fix and flip or use. As someone said on another forum, the world is a little colder and meaner.

My deepest condolences on your loss. If there is anything I can do to help with anything, let me know.

“ I never met George in person, and I knew him only through the forums at Polk Audio and AK. I think the fact that so many people have written basically that same sentence here, on this tribute wall, is pretty telling of how many people's lives he touched. Some people like to masquerade as something that they're not, online. I do not think that was the case with George. If anything, I think he tried to act meaner than he really was, ha ha! I feel confident that I can say he was a true friend, even though we never met. Particularly on the Polk forum, George was always quick-witted and very funny- a master of one-liners- and at the same time, a no-nonsense kind of guy when it came to matters of class and integrity. He helped me greatly, always willing to share his vast knowledge of all things relating to audio or music. I bought lots of vinyl records from George: I'd add a tip in the payment, he'd always one-up me by throwing in something for free that he thought I'd like. Everyone on the forums knew how much he loved his family. I'll miss George greatly, and I offer my deepest condolences to his family.

“ For someone that I never met in person, the news of George's passing has me shaken more than I would have imagined. A little over 10 years ago, I shared some of the difficulties my family was facing with the unborn daughter we were adopting. It looked like she may end up being a special needs child. George reached out and shared the amazing story of his beautiful daughter, Tiffany. It was a worrisome time and George's messages provided us hope. When Lib was born, the major concerns thankfully turned out to be unfounded. Liberty was in special education until kindergarten and when I'd share a story on an audio site where we met, I could count on him to be one of the first people to respond.

George had a heart of gold. I don't have any photos of him to share, but I thought I'd share what he said was his favorite pic of Liberty.

We'll miss you, George. Give Tiffany a hug for us all.

“ Never had I met a more giving man in my life. Underneath that rough exterior was a heart the size of an elephant. While I never got to meet George in person, I can safely say that I knew him as a friend better than others I have met in person. Goodbye George, thank you for your kindness over the years my friend, please give Tiffany an extra hug from me will ya?

George, Tiffany, and the two of you will be in my prayers.*

“ I was saddened to learn of George's passing. I never met George in person, but had many conversations with him via the Internet. It was my honor to assist George in small ways with his selfless work for the Githens Center. He had a heart of gold under that sometimes crusty and often amusing exterior. I'm just sorry that I didn't know he wasn't well (just not his way). I hope that he rests in Peace and send my sympathies to his family.

“ To the entire Grand family and friends, so very sorry for your loss . I too ,only knew George through the Club Polk Forum and wanted to add ,he was always appreciated for his infinite knowledge and help on audio gear to so many. We also enjoyed George's quick wit and humor that brought to us many a smile. I wanted to dedicate a song in honor of George Grand and to his service to our country and to all who serve all over the world to protect freedom and liberty. It's a song sung by the then 14 year old Hayley Westenra at the Festival of Remembrance at the Royal Albert Hall . in 2003. The song is "Tonight We'll Light A Candle" and the video is on Youtube.
