

George A Sirawsky

November 6, 1958 - November 17, 2025

George Sirawsky, 67, of Lumberton, passed away peacefully at home surrounded by loved ones.

George was born in Princeton NJ and grew up in Hightstown NJ. He has resided in Lumberton NJ, for the past 37 years. George was an avid bowler and loved his Pittsburgh teams- Steelers, Pirates, and Penguins. He graduated from culinary school and worked as a chef at several restaurants over the years. Cooking was his passion, and he loved creating his own recipes. He also loved listening to music and playing his guitar, especially with his brothers. George was the life of the party and would always meet new people and make friends wherever he went.

George is predeceased by his parents George and Theresa Sirawsky. He is survived by his loving wife Cathy, who he married 39 years ago, and his two daughters Amy and Kelly. George is also survived by his four sisters Helen Vujevich, Rose Kaiser (JD Brown), Donna Langner (Bob), Kathy Blum (Larry Oswald) and his two brothers Andrew Sirawsky (Jill) and Matthew Sirawsky. Also, by his brother and sisters-in-laws Cindy and Al Kandell and Chuck and Ellyn Burrough. He also leaves behind many beloved nieces, nephews, great nieces and great nephews, as well as countless relatives and friends, all whom he loved dearly.

Services will be held privately.
