“ To the family of Mr. Glen A. Smith,

Blessed be God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, the Father of tender mercies and the God of all comfort. (2 Corinthians 1:3) Nothing can fully prepare us for the loss of those we love. The feelings are overwhelming and leave us powerlessness.

The sorrow death brings we never get over but at some point we get accustom to it and we learn to accept the change. However, grief is sweeping emotion that changes our circumstances, it lingers and the healing process seems never ending. It's not something to "just" get over by wanting to.

The Holy Scriptures tells us to throw our burdens upon him "and he himself will sustain us. (Psalms 55:22) There are many beautiful truths contained in God's Word; one truth is that God will not allow our suffering to go on indefinitely and he provides comfort abundantly through friends and family. I pray such ones surround you.

The Bible teaches that he will soon undo all the bad things that mankind is suffering. How comforting then it is to know about God's restorative power (Acts 3:21, Revelation 21:4) and by means of the resurrection God can reunite us with our loved ones. What a loving promise found at (John 5:28, 29). Until that time seek comfort from the Scriptures and may God grant you "the power beyond what is normal" to sustain you and your family at this most difficult time. (2 Corinthians 4:7) Please read all the cited Scriptures and truly benefit from their promises.

“ First would like to offer our kind thoughts and prays to Glen's family. We knew Glen and family when we lived in Tarnsfield Development. He was such a kind and helpful person. We belonged to the Tarnsfield Swim Club. We can always remember Glen to make a helpful suggestion or a kind word to our children. All our fond memories of our summers at the Swim Club were because of all the hard work Glen and the board accomplished.

Sincerely,

Connie, Frank Marzullo and family
