“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. When we lose our loved one in death it is the most difficult time in our life. However, there is loving comfort in Psalms 55:22 to “throw your burden on God and he will sustain you..” Yes, no matter what you are facing God is there to help you get through it. May you continue to have the love and support from family and friends. I sincerely hope that this Bible message brings you a measure of comfort during this difficult time.

Aunt Gloria will be missed. Even though I know she is still with me. And I really can feel her presence inside me. She was a wonderful and extremely loving Aunt. God blessed us with her, even if it wasn't as long as we would have wished. Didn't get to see her as I would have liked the past few years, but always thought of her and prayed for her. I have some wonderful memories, many going back when she was in high school. I will continue to pray for the rest of the family for that is all we really can do. I will always remember her loving hugs and smiles. Aunt Gloria, you may be gone from this life, but I believe that one day I will get to see you again. Will always love you, Aunt Gloria. Oh, could you say Hi to all of the others up there in heaven with you?
