“ Aunt Grace always welcomed us whenever we had a chance to visit. I still remember 1963 when we drove from Biloxi for Christmas and had Christmas dinner at her house.

Uncle Fred was still alive at that time and Daddy (Aunt Grace's brother) had a great time. Hard to believe that Aunt Grace is gone.

“ Grace was one of the spunkiest, most faithful people I have ever met. I always admired her Saunday teachings because of how much she knew and how much I learned from her, and I always looked forward to my Halloween quarters. My sincerest condolences.

For a beautiful loving Christian woman, a devoted friend/cousin/neighbor who has been an inspiration to me my entire life and to my husband when we married You taught me a lot through your devotion to God and to our little Oak Grove Church. We shall always remember your kindness and inspiration after I had my stroke and your support for us when our daughter Kim passed of cancer. During those time periods your support was great and encouragement beyond all. We look next door and every night I still say Good Night Grace. You have met your wish and endeavor and you are Home with the Lord and your loved ones greet you, just like the Lord... with their arms wide open!

With fond memories of Grace overseeing Brownies and Girl Scout cookie sales with Linda, Sunday School, summers playing in her yard and picking blueberries in the various Wells' patches and the kindness and care that she had and shared with others. Thank you Grace. Alice Erles Reshamwala
