“ I was saddened to read of the loss of your loved one. I personally experienced the grief of losing my loved ones. However, there is comfort to know the Holy Scriptures gives the assurance that God will end death, pain and sorrow. Rev 21:4 For the ones we have lost in death, there is a promise for them by means of the resurrection. John 5:28,29

“ So so many memories with my Auntie. Rabbits in the back yard. Family BBQ's, swimming races in the pool. Always a great time with my cousins and my Aunt & Uncle. I know you are at peace and resting now. Able to see family & friends that we have lost along the way. I thank you for sharing your time on this earth with me. You will be dearly missed and remembered always. My daughters appreciate all that you instilled in me to help make them the women they are today. I LOVE YOU and will be talking to you frequently. XOXOXOXOXO

My Aunt Harriet was always a mother to all of her nieces and nephews. For as long as I can remember she was always my favorite. All of the girls and the guys in the family will take all of her lifes lessons with us and we will continue to incorporate them into our growing families. Aunt Harriet I love you now as I always have and look forward to seeing you again when it is my time to take that journey. You will be missed and continue to be loved by myself and my girls. Your were an amazing woman! I love you deeply. Hugs and Kisses.
