“I always loved Harry beeping at me while driving one of his classic cars through the borough while I was doing my street cleaning. He was always outside, keeping his curb and yard spotless, all done with a smile on his face. What a big loss for our little town. Nancy, all my sympathy for the loss of your beloved husband.

“ Last year on a trip to NJ I stopped by the house after not seeing Harry and Nancy since before Covid. Harry opened the door right up and let us in to talk about his times growing up with my grandfather and their siblings. I'll always remember that great fall afternoon.
