Tribute Wall

“ My heart goes out to "Sammy's" family as he was a great family oriented man. You can always look at the smile in his eyes when his granddaughters would show up where he was.

He was also a man you can talk to about anything and he would share his opinion with you whether is it was in agreement or not. He had a wealth of knowledge who was willing to share if you wanted to make the time. He had a smile that you can see from his eyes as well as sadness, he could not hide how he felt just by that. Strong willed to say the least.

You will be missed by more people that you realize, as all great men should. I salute you Sir by doing great by your family, friends and your service for our country's opportunities you provided for all Americans to enjoy.
