

Helene Allen

February 3, 1926 - September 3, 2018

Helene Allen, formerly of Medford and Glassboro died Monday, September 3, 2018. She was 92.

She was employed at the Burlington County Board of Social Services for 33 years.

Helen loved to travel with her husband and especially loved her flower gardens. She was an avid reader, excellent homemaker and seamstress. Her homemade cookies and cheesecakes were the hit of the Christmas holidays. She was a great hostess to "The Gang," a group of lifelong friends from high school.

Wife of the late Kenneth C. Allen, she is survived by son Randy (Dee), daughter Marion, four grandchildren and six great-grandchildren.

Services were private to the family.

“ Helene was my neighbor for many years. After she lost her husband , Kenny, I did my best to look after her. She was at a lost without her Kenny. I tried to fill his shoes to help around the farm. Helene and I became closer and I was sad when she moved away. Not a day goes by that I don't look out my kitchen window across the field to the farm, that I won't remember two great people who I loved. Kenny and Helene are together once again.
