“ Mac helped me and Jen get into our home at bel aire park 2 years ago. Great guy! If your home you would see him do a sweep of the neighborhood every day around noon. And he helped us catch a night thief. Good times! Plus small talk many times. He was always cool to talk to about homes and cars/trucks.

“ I was in the accident with Mac when he lost his leg. I broke my femur bone. I will never forget being in the hospital emergency room with just curtains drawn between us. I was screaming "my leg, my leg" and Mac hollered "Shut up Cathy, you should see my leg" All the while trying to comfort me through his pain. I was in traction and he would wheel on up to my room to check on me. Stand up guy.

“ To the family: Mac loved you all, he would say that all the time. He was not only a bandmate but became a close friend and was brother like in every way. He was supportive to me personally thru troubled times. Some of my better moments were spent sitting with Mac working on songs for the band. We offer our sincere sympathy and we shall keep you in our thoughts always. Mac remains in my heart. --JL--FMR
