

James J Harris

March 27, 1948 - October 19, 2019

James J. Harris of Burlington Township and Naples, FL, died suddenly on Saturday, October 19, 2019 while visiting friends in Georgia. He was 71.

Born in Philadelphia, Jim was a graduate of Riverside High School, Class of 1966 where he played football. During high school he played guitar in a band for the local dances. He was a Navy Veteran of Vietnam. After his honorable discharge from the Navy, he started Harris Fence Corp. in 1971. Jim was very involved in the Burlington Township Community. He had served as President of the Burlington Township Board of Education, was a member and co-chair of the Zoning Board, was a soccer coach for 16 seasons for the Burlington Township Soccer Club. Jim was a member and past President of the Burlington Rotary Club and was a Paul Harris Fellow. He loved reading and history. Jim enjoyed golfing with his friends at Burlington Country Club. He and his wife especially enjoyed their time together in Naples, FL.

Jim is survived by his wife of 47 years, Donna (nee Conlow); 2 sons: Colin Harris of Moorestown & Keith Harris of Burlington & South Beach, FL; and his treasured grandson Jack.

Relatives and Friends are invited to visit with the family on Friday evening from 6-8pm at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High St., Mount Holly. A prayer service will follow at 8pm.

“ I always admired Jim. He was a good man, an excellent president of the Board of Education and an all around solid citizen, father and husband. He helped to make Burlington Township a better place for all of us to live in.

I extend my warmest sympathies to his wife and sons during these difficult times.

“ To the Harris Family, I'm deeply sorry for the lost of Mr. Harris. My prayers and thoughts are with you through this very hard time. I can't even imagine what you are going through. My heart is feeling your pain of losing a great hard working man as a Husband, Father, Grandfather & A great Friend to his close one. I'll always remember Mr Harris as a great respectful person I got to meet as growing up in Burlington. Now your Family & his close friends with have a special Angel looking down over everyone. Remember all the good times and be there for each other with the Love & support through this very hard time. ❤️🇺🇸 Love Antoinette Carnivale
