

James O. Brown Sr.

August 19, 1918 - September 26, 2010

James O. Brown, SR. husband of Alberta Bryant Brown, died Sunday September 26th following a brief illness. Jim was born in Philadelphia to James and Nellie Andrews Brown on August 19, 1918. He was preceded in death by siblings: Robert Brown, Ruth Souder, Helen Berry and Ralph Brown. Jim graduated from South Philadelphia High School in 1936. He attended Pierce Business School and Philadelphia College of Bible. Jim retired from Conrail in 1978 after 42 years of employment with it and its predecessor railroads, Pennsylvania and Penn Central. He had been a Chief Investigator of freight claims.

Jim and Alberta have two sons: Rev. James O. Brown, Jr. and his wife Patricia Page Brown of Wilmington, DE and Raymond P. Brown and his wife Paulette Johnson Brown of Atlanta Georgia. James and Alberta moved their family to Lumberton in 1953. There are four granddaughters: Heather Binkley, Robyn Flenner, Rachel Magnuson and Rebecca Roosma and seven great grandchildren.

Jim's secular employment was used to support his true calling which was preaching and teaching the central theme of the Bible, which is that men and women come into everlasting relationship with God through faith in Jesus' atoning death for them. From age 18 Jim taught and led in Christ's Church. Jim's wife and his family will receive visitors in the Sanctuary of Easton Bible Church, 2407 Fostertown Road, Hainesport at 10:00AM on Saturday October 2nd. A service of worship will follow at 11AM. In lieu of flowers, the family asks that donations be made to Easton Bible Church and designated, "For Missions." Arrangements by the Perinchief Chapels, Mount Holly, NJ
