James William Potts

September 29, 1959

December 1, 2023

After a short but courageous battle with bone cancer, Jim passed into our heavenly father's arms surrounded by his family.

Jim proudly served in the US Army as a tank driver and later an observation/scout helicopter mechanic. During the time, he earned a Good Conduct Medal, M-16 Sharpshooter badge, and marksman badge for 45 caliber handguns.

After separating from the Army, Jim was employed for several years as a supervisor at Shelter Systems.

Jim is survived by his three sons, Austin, Robert, and Kyle and their mother, Beverly; brother, Mark; sister, Susan (Sam); and his Aunt Millie.

Jim is predeceased by his father, Herbert W. Potts and mother, Nita Potts.

Relatives and friends are invited to attend his graveside service on Wednesday, December 6 at 11 AM at Cedar Hill Cemetery, Florence.
