

James W Sine

November 12, 1930 - January 20, 2019

James W. Sine of Mount Laurel passed away on January 20, 2019 at Virtua-Memorial Hospital. He was 88.

Born November 12, 1930, he was a graduate of Moorestown High School class of '49. He served in the NJ National Guard for several years. Jim was a purchasing agent for Goodrich and owned Stockton's Dry Cleaning in Mount Holly for 30 years.

He led a busy life being a member of the Moorestown Masonic Lodge, the Mount Laurel Economic Development Committee when Ramblewood and other communities were being established, the Mount Holly Vincentown Kiwanis, President of Greentree Recreation in its beginning, and spent years coaching little league baseball. He was proud to have won the seniors billiard championship in Mount Laurel but was proudest at running the Burlington County Special Olympics in Burlington County for decades.

Jim was preceded in death by his daughter Lee Kenny. He is survived by his beloved wife of 67 years, Dolly (nee Shadel); his daughter Ruth and son Curt; 4 grandchildren and 4 great-grandchildren. Services will be held in private and condolences can be made at the website below. Contributions in Jim's memory may be made to Special Olympics New Jersey, 1 Eunice Kennedy Shriver Way, Lawrenceville, NJ 08648.

My condolences on the passing of your father and to Dolly's husband. I have wonderful memories of spending time at their house with your family. He was a wonderful man and the world was a better place because of his kind heart.
