Jim & I were cousins- his maternal great-uncle was my maternal grandfather. I enjoyed his "dry" sense of humor. A favorite memory is visiting the Cleveland Rock n Roll Hall of Fame with Jim. We had a contest about which of us had the more restrictive parent that limited our music listening (as in : " that song's dirty! you're not listening to that CRAP in THIS house"!) ... JIM WON.

It is never easy to find the words to express our feelings when there are no words that can fully capture the depth of what we feel. R.I.P Jim
