

James F. Hansen

February 8, 1935 - October 27, 2008

James F. Hansen of Lumberton died Monday, October 27, 2008 at his residence. He was 73. Mr. Hansen was born in Buffalo, New York and was a longtime resident of the Mount Holly-Lumberton area. He was a veteran of the US Army. For many years Mr. Hansen was a bus driver for Starr Bus Company and later drove buses for Garden State Transport in Southampton. Mr. Hansen loved bingo and enjoyed going to the casinos in Atlantic City. Mr. Hansen is survived by his companion of 22 years, Anna May Tuno and her children: Robert Faulkes of Atlantic City, Thomas Faulkes and his wife Eileen of Burlington, and Becky Payan and her husband Sal of Atlantic City. He is also survived by his close friend Bob and Ginny Trumbette of Mount Holly and Nancy and Harry Cutts of Pemberton. Funeral services will be held Friday at 2 PM at the Perinchief Chapels, 438 High St., Mt. Holly. Interment will be in the Sacred Heart Cemetery, Hainesport. Friends may call Friday from 1-2 PM at the Funeral Home.

Tribute Wall

“ James F. Hansen

October 29, 2022 at 11:57 AM

James Jansen had 3 children Colleen Irene and James Jr. His live in girlfriend Ana may Tuno forbid james to see or support his children God's wrath will be

X wife - February 06, 2023 at 12:35 PM

“ James F. Hansen

October 29, 2022 at 09:53 AM