“ *To the Passalacqua Family: We were so blessed to have known Jimmy since Middle School. He was a great friend to my brother Charlie and I. I will never forget how much he helped me at the gym to stay motivated- I truly believe that was his calling in life to help and inspire others. Our pizza nights will not be the same without seeing his smile when we walked into King. May he rest in peace. He was taken too soon but we will never forget him. You are all in our prayers. “ Hello Jim, Helen, Julie after so many years. We are all so sorry to hear about Jimmy. What a shock. Adam just saw him and spoke with him a week before at the gym. This is hard to write, but just remember the great times with Jimmy, soccer playing, etc. We can't imagine what you are going through. Love to you all, and you will in time get through this and have great memories of your son. Love to Jimmy and your family from the Wallace family.##imported-begin##Dave, Karen, Adam, and Ryan Wallace##imported-end##

“ We are sorry for your loss of your Son, Brother, Best Friend. Surely he stands beside Jesus, completely understanding all of God's mysterious ways. We hope this poem will help to ease your grief.

"The Broken Chain

We little knew that morning that God was going to call your name, In life we loved you dearly, in death we do the same. It broke our hearts to lose you, you did not go alone. For part of us went with you, the day God called you home. You left us peaceful memories, your love is still our guide, And though we cannot see you, you are always at our side. Our family chain is broken, and nothing seems the same, But as God calls us one by one, the chain will link again."
