“ Dear Dad,

*Sorry it took so long to write this i thought if i waited it would be easier, but i was wrong. I thought of you as superdad i thought you would have been here to see Kory graduate high school But God had other plans for you. we all miss you so much. Kory talks about you all the time he said (pop-pop is the funniest person i will ever know) he is right about that. However i think you would have said Kory is the funniest person you would ever know. You both laughed all the time at each other. he misses that. we all miss that. Mom just cries all the time she is lost without you! You are the Best Dad and Pop-Pop in the world. you worked so hard all of your life for us, so thank you for taking care of us and teaching us wrong from right. We will never forget you and will always love you. I want you to know that i will take care of Mommy and Kory always, as i promised. I bet you are in heaven making all the other angels laugh. talk to you soon XXX & OOO from Kory
Love from Stacy, Brian, Kory & Barb###imported-begin###Stacy###imported-end###*

“ We did not know we would feel this way but we really do still miss you. I guess we waited so long to contact you because we didn't think you wanted us in your life. We don't know why you would think we wouldn't want to see you, we have always loved you. We wish we went to see you sooner but as life has it things don't always work out the way we hope. We are so happy that you got to experience the joys of being a dad since your time with us was so short. And we can only imagine what it must have felt like to be a grandparent. You actually have 3 other grand children, Christina, Zachary & Melanie. I wish you would have had a chance to know them and for them to know you as well, they are great kids. It makes us very happy to hear about the wonderful man you became and we are only sorry we didn't get a chance to experience it first hand. We hope you are watching out for us and allow us to become friends with Mary, Stacy & Jasper and their families because we would love to get to know them, and to hear all the wonderful stories they have to share about you. We know they all miss you very much so please watch over them and keep them all safe. Please also watch over Barbara and Uncle Johnny they miss you so much. We love you and you will always be with us.
Your Daughters,

“ Dad,

We miss you like crazy, you were so funny and you would give the shirt off your back... You were always our best friend, we sure did have a lot in common! We do cry a lot over your death and believe us, life won't be the same without you.. You meant more to us than you ever knew.. We will do all we can to keep your memory alive.. Rest in Peace our dearest Dad. We have an empty spot in our hearts and it hurts deeply.. They say time heals all wounds, but we think it hurts more. We love you Dad. We will always remember the times you spent sitting at our kitchen table, making us laugh at all your stories. We know you are with the angels now & out of pain. Dad please watch over Mommy and the rest of the family, because they are still in shock and devastated..##imported-begin##James Garlanger ##imported-end##
