“ My favorite times were the years spent in the old home of Aunt Jane and Uncle Bill on July 4th. Plenty of food, friends and splashing around the pool with my Grammy (Anna Gsell Nack), Uncle Bert and Aunt Gertie, Linda and Bill, Sally, Robert and Dorothy Mulholland, Lori and I. After a day of fun outside I remember watching television in the small rec room with blue and white striped floors. I loved that floor! It was a time of innocence and belief in possibilities. Thank you Aunt Jane. Those are some of the most memorable and beloved times of my life. Amy Mulholland (Nanaymie Godfrey)

She was my fourth grade teacher 68-69. Our class was relocated to Medford Memorial School . I remember her reading to our class chapter books . She also taught us how to knit . She was a kind lady.

Mrs Challenger was my fourth grade teacher 73-74 at Florence Walther. I was always impressed by her quiet mannerism. When we stayed inside for recess we could play games at our desks...she would knit! Wonderful memories of a kind soul.
