

Jane Davis

February 23, 1928 - December 14, 2018

Jane B. Davis passed away Friday evening, December 14, 2018 at the age of 90 years.

She was predeceased by her parents, William Leslie Beck and Dorothy Marie Allen, husband Calvin Davis, first husband Kenneth Gilchrist, daughter Susan Gilchrist, and sisters Ruth and Betty.

Jane enjoyed creating incredible works of art through cross-stitch, cheering on the Philadelphia Eagles and spending time with her family and friends. A true class act, she never went a day without her nails painted, lipstick and jewelry on, no matter what the occasion.

Jane had a youthful soul that never aged and quick wit that always had people laughing up to her very last day. She demonstrated what true strength is with all that she overcame in her life through the power of positivity. Her words of wisdom were always to live life one day at a time with peace, love and happiness in your heart. Jane touched many lives in her ninety years on earth and will be greatly missed by all. Her beautiful smile and gracious spirit will hold a special place in our hearts forever.

She is survived by her son, Steve (Mindy) Gilchrist, grandson Brad (Rachel) Burris, granddaughters Julie (Michael) Early, Kimberly Gilchrist and Kayli

Gilchrist and 3 great granddaughters.

In lieu of services, her wishes were for her family to celebrate and honor her life privately.

Tribute Wall

“ Jane Davis

October 29, 2022 at 11:57 AM

“ Jane Davis

October 29, 2022 at 09:53 AM