

Janet Z Foord

May 20, 1925 - May 21, 2020

Janet Zimmerman Foord a resident of Medford Leas, Medford, NJ was born May 20, 1925 in Pittsburgh, PA to Mary Gertrude Weaver and Mason Stuart Zimmerman. She passed away on May 21, 2020 at Medford Leas due to complications associated with the coronavirus.

Janet grew up in Pittsburgh and attended Allegheny College (Meadville, PA). After graduating, she worked in the History Department of Yale University where she met her husband, Dr. Edward Foord (deceased 1988). They wed in 1949. The couple began their life together at Fort Jackson (South Carolina) where Edward was stationed as a physician during the Second World War. Following the war, Janet and Edward relocated to Mt. Holly, NJ. They later moved to Westampton Township where they raised four children. Janet served on the Women's Auxiliary of Burlington County Memorial Hospital (BCMH) and the Visiting Homemakers of Burlington County. She was a member of the Colonel Thomas Reynolds Chapter of the National Society of Daughters of the American Revolution (Mt. Holly). Janet also worked as a librarian for the medical library at BCMH.

She is survived by her three children, Karl Edward Foord (Chaska, MN), Madeleine Smith Foord (Stoneham, MA) and David Malcom Foord (Dingmans Ferry, PA) as well as two grandchildren, Holly Elizabeth Foord and Jeffrey Malcom Foord (Dingmans Ferry, PA).
