“ My sincere condolences to the Pinkerton family. I was so fortunate to have known Jan (Pinky) through our mutual employment at LLBean. I can still hear her laughter and feel her love in the store. We spent many fun times sharing our stories of our family and especially our grandchildren. Jan was a tireless leader who was an example of hard work, with compassion and true interest and concern for her fellow workers. She will be missed but not forgotten. She impacted all of us in such a positive way. I'll never forget watching Jan leading us like a young cheerleader at our spinning class! Jan, you are still an inspiration. May these memories that people are sharing help in some small way to ease the pain and sorrow. I think Jan wants us to remember her in the good times. I know I will. God bless! Ron Pugh

“ To Jan's family and friends: We send our sincerest condolences. We know Jan felt very fortunate to spend time with all of you over the past few years. She would share pictures of her grand kids with us when we saw her, and always updated everyone of her whereabouts and fun she was having on facebook. It is a sad day for all of you and our wish is that you all find comfort in your good memories of her. Our thoughts and prayers go out to al of you. She was a godsend to us when she created our wedding venue at LL Bean or the "BEANERY" as she called it. We knew her all too briefly but she impacted our lives in a special, special way. We truly loved Jan and we are thinking about you all.

“ Dear Pinkerton family:

I wish to convey my sincerest condolences to your entire family. Losing a loved one in death is one of the hardest things that anyone will ever have to deal with. There is a great hope held out to us for the future because God promises to bring those we lost back to life by means of a resurrection to a paradise earth, where sickness and death will be no more. I hope this brief message will bring you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.
