

Jeanette C. Johnson

February 14, 1952 - June 12, 2022

Jeanette Carol (Butler) Johnson, the “baby girl” of Ernest and Josephine (Williams) Butler was born on February 14, 1952, a Valentine’s Day gift. On Sunday, June 12, 2022, GOD in his infinite wisdom, whispered softly, “Jeanette, come home.” She obeyed her Lord and Savior’s command and is now resting peacefully in His arms.

Jeanette grew up in the Hill District of Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania where she attended Miller Elementary School, Fifth Avenue Junior High for one year, then chosen to be a student in the Scholars Program and transferred to Frick Elementary School. She graduated with honors from Pittsburgh’s Schenley High School in June 1970.

After high school graduation, Jeanette travelled to Philadelphia, Pennsylvania to attend Temple University. She received her Bachelor of Arts degree in May, 1974 and MBA in May, 1992.

While at Temple, Jeanette met and later married Ollie Johnson, Jr. From this union, two children were born, Maia Benay Johnson and Evan Blake Johnson. While married, Jeanette enjoyed the life of an NBA wife since Ollie had been drafted into the NBA by the Portland Trailblazers.

Jeanette gave her life to Christ and was baptized at Triumph Baptist Church, Philadelphia, PA. She developed many church friendships. She was a part of a book club that Jeanette enjoyed immensely. She faithfully read the literary selections and regularly attended her book club meetings. Jeanette’s friends found her to be quite logical and sometimes a bit matter-of-fact in her remarks.

Since possessing a MBA degree, Jeanette pursued careers in Finance, including, but not limited to, mortgage underwriting, consumer lending, quality control, insurance, and project management. Jeanette officially retired in 2020. After the COVID pandemic forced work from home, Jeanette was furloughed by the State of New Jersey, Division of Taxation and DONE. Now, she could spend enjoyable time with her grandsons, Aalijah Braylon Johnson and Landon Joseph Johnson. These boys brought her so much joy.

Another joyful activity for Jeanette was preparing great meals for her children and their friends. She took pleasure in having them come to the house and pretty much eat everything. She thought they were just great young people. In addition to her children, Maia and Evan, and her grandsons, Aalijah and Landon, Jeanette leaves to mourn and cherish her memory--her sister Patricia "Patsy" Butler, her sister/cousins, Gloria Shelton and Lillian Dade, First cousins/siblings Odell Williams, Jr., Dorine McCown Williams, and Carmen McCown Williams Martin, childhood friends, Benita Witherspoon Edwards and Yolanda Turner, nieces, nephews, many cousins, and countless friends.

“ My dear friend, Pat...all I can say is that I know how it feels to be the "last of the Mohicans". Losing your only sister is like losing your other half. Please know that my heart is with you and if I can do anything to ease your sorrow, I am here for you!
