“ Our love and comfort is sent to all of you. Aunt Jeanne was a role model to me with her determination and strength.. She was a fun person to be around and a DEAR TRUE friend to my Mom. She will be missed deeply.

“ I read the obituary about the loss of your loved one and I extend my sincere condolences. At this time you are feeling an unbearable pain, and experiencing a great loss. Psalms 46:1 says, “God is our refuge and strength, a help that is readily found in times of distress.” He will help you get through this difficult time. (Isaiah 41:10) I hope this brief Bible message has brought you a measure of comfort in this difficult time.

Jeanne was a very close and wonderful friend to my Mom, Mildred. This photo was taken in 2010 behind my nephew Stephen's home near the Red Lion Inn. There are thousands of memories between our two familys: from the barbeques that started at our 1st home on Rte. 206 in the mid-'50s to fun at the Jersey Shore in Harvey Cedars, the blueberrys and bogs in Moore's Meadows, their children, grandchildren and great grandchildren, and on and on. We will miss you and mourn your passing, Jeanne. May God bless you and keep you... I'm sure you and Mom are planning a shopping trip somewhere in Heaven.

“ I am truly sorry for your loss. Although I did not know Mrs. Simons personally, my heart goes out to all her family during this very difficult time because we all have lost someone we love in death. In times like this I have found comfort in God's promises recorded at Revelation 21:4 & John 5:28,29, where it is promised that sickness & death will be done away with, but that our loved one is safe in God's memory and we will be able to be reunited with them again. These promises may seem unrealistic because of what we experience now, but I hope knowing that our loving Heavenly Father longs to do these things can bring you some comfort until these promises are fulfilled.
