“ I grew up on Fountain Avenue and remember Jeannine as the pretty little blonde girl with the most adorable smile. I hadn't seen her for years until my daughter Lorraina joined a new Girl Scout troop of which Maddie was a part a few years ago. She was then the pretty blonde woman with the same gorgeous smile. Ironically, my brother was battling Stage 4 cancer at that time. Jeannine was always full of support, encouragement and well wishes. From the time she bravely shared her own diagnosis with me, I somehow always felt that she would be the one to defeat the horrible disease, perhaps because of her great spirit and determination. The amazing way she handled everything with such grace was as unforgettable as her beauty and that smile. Jimmy, Madison and the Levondosky/Otting families, you have my deepest sympathy for your and all of our great loss.###imported-begin##Leslie (Thompson) Gibson##imported-end##

“ Since we first met when our children started pre-school together, I remember seeing Jeannine most days for many years - always cheerful, smiling, and warm. Never without a kind word and welcoming smile. She was in my thoughts so much these past several months; I hope she knew how much everyone was rooting for her, thinking and praying for her, Jimmy, and Maddie. You are all in our thoughts and prayers. We wish you peace, love, and comfort.##imported-begin##Stacey Jones##imported-end##

“ Jeannine,
You were loved by so many and touched many more. I will always see you every time I look at Maddie. She is just as beautiful and strong as you and may she forever have the spark that you instilled in her. Our hearts break for Jimmy, Maddie, and your whole family. We will always be here for them. You will forever be one of the most courageous, strongest women I have ever met.

“ My thoughts and prayers go out to the Otting/Levondosky families. As a friend of Jeannine's sister, I will always remember Jeannine for being the cool big sister I always wanted but never had. She went out of her way to take us to and pick us up from the mall or the pool hall on weekends. She never ratted us out when we got ourselves into trouble! Though as time passed and we grew up I didn't see much of Jeannine but have thought of her often, espicially over the last couple of years. My deepest sympathies to Jimmy and Madison and also to Laura, Carl, Melissa, Brian, and Mark. God bless you all.###imported-begin##Kristin DiPietro###imported-end##

“ My dear childhood neighbor and friend, although our lives took different paths I have many fond memories that I will treasure in my heart for the rest of my life. When I reflect back on those precious years of playing together with you, Brian, Amy, Shawn and Cindy, I can't help but smile because of all the fun we had, the summers we shared, and even the trouble we got into. I feel truly blessed to have shared my childhood with you and honored to have been part of yours. I regret not knowing you as an adult but have no doubt that you have left a piece of yourself with every life you've touched as you have left with mine. I will keep your family and loved ones in my prayers and hope that time and stories like this that I'm sure will flood in to them in the coming days, weeks and months ahead will bring them solace. Perhaps we shall play together again someday when the Lord welcomes me home. Until then, my friend, I will always remember us as little girls. May you rest in God's grace. With love, Felicia (Eckman) Zimarowski.##imported-begin##Felicia Zimarowski##imported-end##

“ Jeannine was a wonderful brave woman who has touched many peoples lives in many ways, she was always smiling even when Jimmy was up to no good, she has brought a beautiful daughter into this world who will continue to amaze many of us with the strength she has shown for such a young child while watching her mother try to overcome this battle. May Jeannine continue to live on through Madison. Prayers are with the Levondosky and Otting Families during these trying times.
