“ I was a classmate of Jeffery in Windham College, Putney, Vermont (we both graduated in 1973). As one of my other classmates, Peter Finch, mentioned, he was very active in the theater dept. of the college. But--and some may not remember this--he was also an avid motorcyclist. It was from him that I learned all about Evel Knievel....the late and great motorcycle daredevil. So I appropriately bestowed upon Jeffery a nickname that he found clever and amusing, and which caught on among many of his Windham buddies: "Evel K-Newhouse"!!

Anyway, so sorry he's gone. He left us way too soon.

“ I attended Windham College in Putney, VT, with Jeff. Times were crazy and so was Jeff! He was bigger than life, extremely energetic and energizing. He was a person that you could not ignore or ever forget. I never did. We lost contact after college and I only today heard about his death and I feel sorry for his friends and family who knew him better and were closer to him than I. Kind regards...Jay Burnham

While at Windham College ('69-'73), I met Jeff in Joe Greenhoe's theater productions. Jeff was truly dedicated to the art. Peter Finch, Exeter, NH

Knew Jeff at Windham, all those years ago. Greatly enjoyed his spirit, and sense of humor (and hilarious sarcasm). He was a 'one-off', truly. Can't easily imagine another like him. We are all lessened by his loss. Wishing him smooth passage to greener pastures. In the words of the immortal Jimi Hendrix "I won't see you again in this world. See you in the next one, and don't be late. Don't be late!"
