“ Hi Mom. Happy Mother’s Day !! I am sorry I know it was in May) and Happy 82nd Birthday in Heaven !!. June 30, 2016. I hope you are celebrating your life as it should be. I miss you very much. I think of you every day. I thank you for sending me a sign that all was well with you. I had hoped for a shooting star. I was lost and then I heard one of our favorite songs on the radio. I hadn’t heard the song in over a year and then after you were gone about a month I started hearing the song several times in a week for several more months. I know this was a gift from God as no one else knew our favorite song. I always liked the song for its catchy beat and some of the lyrics, but it wasn’t until I heard it after you were gone did I know its meaning. I have to say even with you gone there are things to learn about you. You were not a perfect mom but you were perfect to me and for me. I miss hearing your voice the most. You always said you felt better alter talking with me and now I am finding that I still need you. I miss laughing with you. I am still learning as a mom myself and you still live on in the things I do and believe. Here’s to you mom, to all the memories I have of you to sustain me here on earth. I know we must go on and continue to grow until the day our good Lord brings us home. It is difficult some days and I know you would want us to live life to our best. The memories I hold dearest to me are the ones that made you happy. You were happiest being with family, church, your pets and either on or near the water. May Heaven be all that and more. Looking forward to seeing you again someday. Joe and Emily say Hi and miss you too. Love, Donna

“ You're missed Grandma. I am fortunate enough to have had 30 years with you, many wonderful memories growing up as a child with church on Sundays and family dinners. I have my faith, which means we will all be together again one. Love you always.

Just look at the enjoyment in her face! She loved going out on the boat.

When we were kids, mom rode her bicycle with us to the Mirror Lake Beach in Browns Mills. We spent many enjoyable summer days swimming there and Mom truly enjoyed those memorable times spent with us.

“ My best memory of my Mother in Law Joan was when we were going to go boating and she was having a hard time getting in the boat. She said “I’m not getting in until some well-built fellas pick me up and carry me into the boat” Needless to say the men never came.
