

Joan M Shaffer

October 14, 1934 - January 1, 2015

Joan M. Shaffer, 80, of Mount Holly, NJ passed away in her residence in Jackson, NJ on New Year's Day, 2015.

Joan was born to John and Pauline Heether in Riverside, New Jersey where she lived until her marriage. She is predeceased by her parents and her brother Lawrence. She is survived by her brother, Bob Heether and sister Janet and her husband Tom Dickinson all of Delran. Joan and her husband George lived on Rancocas Road in Mount Holly for most of their 60 years of marriage until his death in 2012. Her son John died recently in October 2014. Surviving are her daughter Cindy and her husband Bob Woodington of Millstone Township and their son Clayton & his wife Hanah of Wisconsin; son Rev. Scott Shaffer of Toms River; John's wife Karen Sahffer and their children Justin and Hannah, also of Millstone Township; son Roger and his wife Mary and their boys Christopher, Matthew, and Brendan from Oakland. She had on great-grandchild, Clayton Woodington Jr. She was a proud mother, rejoicing in her children's milestones enjoying every minute with her grand and great-grandchildren. She loved "jitterbugging", playing cards, raising vegetables to share and was an avid recycler. She was active in PTA activities at Sacred Heart Church in Mt. Holly, where she developed many longtime friends. Joan treasured her "hairdressing club girls", great friends with whom she played cards and shared much laughter.
