“ God truly blessed all of us at the Church of Christ in Tabernacle, NJ by bringing this beautiful, talented Godly woman into our church family. She loved us like few others ever could. We will miss her. One thing in particular that she takes with her that we cherished was her beautiful alto voice! She helped make our song services so rich and vibrant. But, her influence on all of our children over the years as she taught them at school and Sunday school is something we treasure and hold in highest esteem. God bless Joan Stocker!

“ I always remember her playing the piano after the Pledge of Allegiance as the class sang "This is Your Land" and reading the Little House of the Praire serious to us.
