“ My Deepest Condolences;

I wished to say, may God comfort the family and all your friends. In God's word the Bible, we can look forward to the time when death will be no more, and instead of tears of sorrow there will be tears of happiness. (Rev 21:3,4) May your memories continue to provide you a measure of comfort at this time of great sorrow.

“ I loved Uncle John. He was a kind, good man with an eccentric wit that occasionally manifested itself in strange ways. In his world, red socks were mandatory for Christmas. He told tales of being from a planet named Pips. I believe he invented the lost tribe of "Poyednos" with their elaborate merit rag system.

The best part about Uncle John was his relationship with my Aunt Leslie. 50+ years together and they still had such a great love for one another. Watch the Christmas video linked below. You can hear it in his voice, cooing over Aunt Leslie as she modeled some ridiculous outfit. They loved each other to the end.

Uncle John, you will be greatly missed.
